

Harrington Update

Spring 2017

Allison June Harrington arrived on her due date, March 27th, at 6:45am. We were surprised by her punctuality and overjoyed by her presence. Amber and Allison are both healthy, and we are all adjusting to life as a family of four.

ily, friends and churches in Washington, California, Arizona and Texas. Several miles were put on our van during these adventures. We praise God there were no problems and the van ran great! Our route from Washington to Texas brought us through the Redwoods, along the coast of California, and to the Grand Canyon in Arizona for the first time.

ceive the Indonesian approval. Amber still has diagnostic tests planned this spring to determine the underlying cause of her Horner's Syndrome. We are grateful for your prayers as we seek out a clear diagnosis.

This winter, we were greatly encouraged by visits with fam-

The ministry of Wycliffe Bible Translators is unique and is funded by those who believe in its vision of reaching all the people of the world with God's Word in the language they understand best. We are currently at 88% of the monthly budget Wycliffe has set for our ministry. Will you pray about becoming a prayer and/or financial partner in our Wycliffe ministry?

We have been in a holding pattern awaiting the arrival of Allison, but now we begin looking ahead to our return to serving the work of Bible translation in Papua. We applied for new Indonesian work visas in March and have been told that it could take three to four months to re-
