Training, Experience and Skills

Summarize your educational and/or vocational training.

Have you been on a mission trip before? Where? When? What Organization?

Describe your previous ministry experience, including cross-cultural experience, if any:

What strengths and/or skills do you have that will help you serve effectively on this particular mission team?

Additional Questions

Specifically...which mission trip are you interested in attending?

Specifically, why do you want to go on this short term missions trip?

What are you trusting God to do in you as a result of this missions project?

What long-term results (both personal and ministry) do you see coming from this trip?

Are you willing to participate in all team building and training events over the next few months?

Will you covenant to be a team player rather than an independent operator of this mission trip, submitting to the team leadership and the needs of the group over your own?
