The Cost of Evangelism & Overcoming Opposition to the Gospel...

1. When counting the cost and opposition to the gospel, remember: there is _____!

2. When counting the cost and opposition to the gospel, remember to: recognize that _____, it’s not ours. He’s simply giving you and me the privilege of being used in His grandest of plans.

3. If we fail to share our faith with others out of concern that we might _____, we run the risk of _____!

4. You are more likely to face less opposition to the gospel if people know that _____. If they know you care they are far more likely to receive your message.

IMPACT Series

Cost of Evangelism & Opposition to the Gospel

⇒ Have someone read Sunday’s passage: Acts 19:23-41

- Who was it that had a problem with the Way? (vs. 24, 25)
 What was their concern?
 How does the world benefit today by pushing out Christianity?
 What are some of today’s idols that replace God?
- What’s the claim against Paul? (vs. 26)
 Rather than going through life not wanting to rock the boat with people, Paul chose to please who? Why?
 What were the motivations behind Paul evangelizing?
- Have you ever been faced with rocking the boat with your faith in your family, neighborhood or at work?
 Right or wrong, what choice did you make, and why?
 What costs do we potentially face today when sharing our faith?
 What costs do we potentially face if we don’t share our faith?
 Has someone come to faith due to you “taking a risk” and sharing your faith? Share about it...
- What could you do differently to be more willing to share your faith with people? Care? Take some risk? Take notice?
