

Pre-K-1st • Easter Lesson 1A

Jesus Died for Sinners

Matthew 21:1-3; Luke 23:46-48

Name

There are lots of ways people celebrate Easter. But what are the most important things we should remember? Draw a circle around the two pictures that are most important then color the pictures.

What You Heard In the Word

- Jesus was welcomed as a king when he entered Jerusalem.
- Jesus suffered and died on the cross for sinners.

Ask your child these questions from today's lesson:

1. What did Jesus come to save us from: the Romans or our sins? Our sins.
2. When Jesus rode into Jerusalem on a donkey, what word did the people shout, which means "save now"? Hosanna!
3. Because Jesus died and paid the punishment for sins, who can we come to and ask to forgive us? God.

Memory Verse

JESUS SAID TO HER, "I AM THE
RESURRECTION AND THE LIFE.
WHOEVER BELIEVES IN ME, THOUGH
HE DIE, YET SHALL HE LIVE."

John 11:25

Justin & Jessie

"Mom!" Justin shouted. "Have you seen Matt's game disc?"

"No, not lately. Where did you put it last?" Mom asked. "Did you put it up high where Ellie can't reach it?"

"Oh no!" Justin said with a look of panic on his face. "I don't know; I can't remember."

What happened to the game disc Justin borrowed from Matt? Justin is really worried; how will he ever be able to pay for a brand-new game? Find out what happens in "Borrowed Games & Crinkled Jeans."
