S.A.L.T. Group questions

- Have someone read Sunday's passage: Daniel 3:8-18
 - What truths stand out to you?
- 1. Why do our convictions need to be clearly defined before they're challenged?
 - Share an experience that a clearly defined conviction helped you to make a controversial decision.
 - What were the results of the decision?
 - Is there anything you would change in making the decision?
- 2. What are some ways that an accurate view of God can give us courage with our convictions?
 - What are some ways that we can gain more courage?
 - How can we show courage with our convictions while still loving people who differ from us?
