Scripture: Daniel 6

[Today's goal: To learn to be resilient]

1. A God-centered perspective in times of need (V.11)

- Life lesson:

God-centered affirmations:

1. Without God, I am forever lost. With God I am forever found.
2. Without God, I am spiritually bankrupt. With God, I have _____.
3. Without God, I am powerless. With God I have His resurrection power.
4. Without God, I am an utter failure. With God I am His _____.
5. Without God, I can accomplish nothing of true value. With God, I can accomplish what He calls me to do.
6. Without God, my self-confidence is easily shaken. With God, my _____.
7. Without God, I must achieve to be worthy. With God, I am worthy as His new creation.
8. Without God, I am driven to control people and circumstances. With God, I can rest in _____.

2. A God-centered perspective in times of success (Vs. 21-22, 26-28)

- Life lesson:

S.A.L.T. Group questions

- Have someone read Sunday's passage: Daniel 6
  - What truths stand out to you?
- 1. Why is it important to have a God-centered perspective in times of need?
  - What are some results when we lose this perspective in times of need?
  - Why are God-centered affirmations so important?
  - Read again the God-centered affirmations from the study notes.
    - What are some more God-centered affirmations?
- 2. Why is it important to have a God-centered perspective in times of success?
  - Why can't success be an enemy to the unwavering life?
  - How can we keep a God-centered perspective when we are experiencing success?
  - Share some needs you have as well as successes with the group.
    - Spend time praying that in all things, you will have a God-centered perspective.
